Title of Research Study: Unimodal vs Multimodal

Principal Investigator: Henry Gold Computer Science major Colorado State University

Introduction
I am Henry Gold, a student in the Department of Computer science at Colorado State University.

Subjects Rights
Your participation in this research study is completely voluntary. You can withdraw at any time. Choosing not to be in this study or to stop being in this study will not result in any penalty to you or loss of benefit to which you are entitled.

Description of the study and study procedures
I am conducting a research study on multimodal vs unimodal input methods.

If you agree to participate, you will be asked to play a vr cooking game where you play it 4 times, once with your hands, once with the controllers, once with your voice and once with your voice and hands. After that you will complete a semi structured interview.

Risks
Your participation in this study does not involve a potential risk of physical or emotional harm beyond what you would encounter in daily life.

Benefits
You are not likely to receive a direct benefit from being in this research study.

Financial Information
Participation in this study will involve no cost to you.

Confidentiality
Information that is collected in the study records that can identify you will be kept confidential by assigning a unique participant ID code (e.g., Participant 01) to all transcripts and data sets. Your name and any identifying information will be stored in a separate, encrypted "master key" file, which is kept apart from the research data.

All raw data and transcripts will be stored on password-protected computers and secure cloud servers accessible only to the primary research staff.

Regarding media recordings: The audio and video recordings of your interview will be used solely for transcription and behavioral analysis. These files will be stored in a secure, encrypted folder. Only the research team will have access to these recordings. Once the interviews are transcribed and de-identified (meaning names and identifying locations are removed from the text), the original recordings will be deleted/destroyed within 6 months of the study's completion.

Compensation:

There will be no compensation for participating in the study

Future research:
Your information collected as part of the research, even if identifiers are removed, will NOT be used or distributed for future research studies.

Whom to contact with questions
If you have any questions or problems during this study, please contact Henry Gold, 541-760-2731, or henry.gold@colostate.edu

If you have questions about your rights as a volunteer in this research, contact the CSU IRB at: CSU_IRB@colostate.edu; 970-491-1553.
